

Port Moody Ecological Society

Constitution

1. The name of the Society is: PORT MOODY ECOLOGICAL SOCIETY
2. The purpose(s) of the Society is (are):
 - a. To engage in community directed education and information dissemination to foster ecological awareness among all ages.
 - b. To carry out relevant research consistent with the objectives of the Society.
 - c. To establish and operate a fisheries / ecological centre and to engage in relevant community programs.
 - d. To network with other like-minded organizations.
 - e. To carry out its work in a democratic and open manner to foster citizen participation in all aspects of the Society's undertakings.
 - f. On winding up or dissolution of the Society, any remaining assets shall not be distributed among the members. After all debts have been paid or provision for payment has been made, all remaining assets shall be donated to the Port Moody Foundation, or in the event of their predissolution, to the Boy Scouts of Canada. This provision is to be unalterable.